About Emmanuel College

Emmanuel College is a residential College within The University of Queensland (UQ) with 350 students, mainly undergraduates (17-20) with some postgraduates, both Australian and international. The College offers academic and pastoral care support in addition to full board accommodation in a collegiate environment in which students will be encouraged and assisted to develop. The College also offers facilities for conferences and (during University vacations) casual residential accommodation as additional business activities.

The Role

We house and cater for 350 students (17- 21 year olds). Our business also includes conferencing, functions and events. We are ideally located within the University of Queensland, St Lucia.

We are looking for a long term employee who has the legal right to work in Australia. Temporary Visa holders need not apply for this position.
